

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

BRIGADIER GENERAL DONNA D. SHIPTON

Brig. Gen. Donna D. Shipton is the Vice Commander, Space and Missile Systems Center, Los Angeles Air Force Base, California. She is responsible for assisting the Commander in managing the research, design, development, acquisition, and sustainment of space and missile systems, launch, command and control, and operational satellite systems. The Space and Missile Systems Center is the nation's center of technical expertise for military space acquisition with more than 5,000 employees nationwide and an annual budget of $7 billion.

Brig. Gen. Shipton received her commission in 1991 as a distinguished graduate of Air Force ROTC after graduating from Clemson University. During her career, she has served in a variety of positions including Lead Systems Engineer, Program Manager, Program Element Monitor, Fleet Manager, Squadron and Group Commander, Senior Military Assistant, and Senior Materiel Leader.

Prior to assuming her current position, Brig. Gen. Shipton was the Air Force Program Executive Officer for tankers at the Air Force Life Cycle Management Center where she was responsible for the planning and execution of all life cycle activities for the Air Force tanker fleet.
